Things to Expect During the First Year of Training

Registration/Uniform – There is a one-time registration fee of $50 per person. Uniform cost is $50 per uniform.

Belt Promotion/Certificates – Belt exams and promotions occur approx. every 3-6 months depending on the student's progress. Please, consult the belt test form for the appropriate promotion fee.

Safety Equipment – The SMA students participate in light sparring activities. For your child's safety, our insurance policy requires that all students wear specially marked with the SMA logo safety equipment. Equipment that does not have a SMA logo on it is not permitted during the class activities unless prior approval by SMA.

Private Lessons – Private lessons are offered for the “elite student” who just can't get enough training. Every school has a group of students that fall in this category. Fees apply.

Tournaments – Student will participate in at least 2 local area tournaments. Tournament participation is not required, however, is used as a good tool to build self confidence in the student's achievements.

Weapons Training – Weapons training is available to all intermediate and advanced students at the instructor's discretion.
